

A. Mitchell Powell Jr. Public Library

Donation Criteria

The library welcomes gifts but accepts them with the understanding that it has the right to handle or dispose of them in the best interests of the institution. Such material may be added to the collection provided it meets the standards of selection. However, gifts must be unqualified. Once given to the library, they cannot be returned to the donor.

The library cannot accept the following types of materials:

- books or paperbacks that are musty, mildewed, significantly yellowed, soiled, or otherwise damaged
- encyclopedia sets with a publication date older than 5 years
- scattered or single volumes of a multivolume set
- textbooks or other technical, legal, or medical books with a publication date older than 2 years
- magazines or journals with a publication date older than 2 years
- manuals of outdated computer software
- copied versions of audio or video cassettes or discs

Although the library acknowledges gifts for tax purposes, it cannot be responsible for assessing the monetary value of gifts.
